

Thursday, September 27, 2001
San Jose McEnery Convention Center
San Jose, California

Sponsored by:

- Association of California Water Agencies
- California League of Food Processors
- California Manufacturers & Technology Association
- Silicon Valley Manufacturing Group

The purpose of this event is to provide a professional, solutions-oriented environment that brings together members of public and private sector organizations, including financial institutions, technical services firms, and utility companies. Attendees will gain an integrated understanding of the approaches and assistance required to achieve cost and energy savings in pumping systems, compressed air systems, and motors and drives. Participants will also have the opportunity to take home unbiased information and analytical tools that can help them increase reliability and manage costs in both the short and long term.

Registration fee is $25. Space is limited.
